Stack Your July Shorts!

We have moved some of the two-session July Shorts courses from Monday and Tuesday (July 10-11) to Thursday and Friday (July 13-14) of the Shorts week. This means that some of the shorter two- and three- session courses will now run concurrently in the same time slot instead of having them all start on Monday. We think this will be a great benefit to members, as you can now stack courses within the same time slot. For example, if you want a course scheduled for July 10-12 (Mon-Wed) at 11:45 AM, you can now add another that meets July 13-14 (Thu-Fri), also at 11:45 AM, instead of having to choose between the two.

The July Shorts lottery will still assign you up to three courses. However, after the lottery, for the first time ever, you will not be limited to four courses total and can add as many open courses as fit in your schedule!

Below are some of the courses that now start later in the Shorts week:

951 The Ethiopia Cross, Gateway to an Ancient Civilization July 13-14 at 9:45 AM

923 Decluttering Step-By-Step July 13-14 at 11:45 AM

931 Do Only the Rich Have Trusts? July 13-14 at 11:45 AM

950 Christo versus Warhol July 13-14 at 11:45 AM

952 Leonard Bernstein: America's Own Musical Genius July 13-14 at 1:45 PM

954 Visual Fitness 4 All® Workouts July 13-14 at 1:45 PM

Last Call for Fall Proposals!

Proposal Form

To propose a study group, click the proposal form link above. You will need to log in with your OLLI username/password or create an account if it's your first time. The proposal deadline is this Sunday, May 7, but if you need a little more time, please let the office know by emailing olli@american.edu.

The Rewards of Being an SGR

It's temptation time again. The new June and July courses are open and can be viewed on the OLLI website. Now the question is how many courses would you like to take? As you register online or fill out a paper registration form, we urge you to check off the box volunteering to be a Study Group Representative (SGR) for one, or more, of your courses.

Shortly after the lottery for each session, we, as SGR Coordinators, contact those who have volunteered to confirm they will be an SGR for a particular class. If there are no volunteers for a class, we call members on the registrant list to ask if they'd be willing to serve in that role. We ourselves have volunteered to take on SGR duties for some of our own individual classes, and this experience has enriched our OLLI experience while providing backup assistance to the Study Group Leader.

SGR duties are light and rarely take more than a few minutes for each class session. Before the academic session starts, SGRs receive the contact information for the class and are welcome to send out an e-mail introducing themselves (no need to type in all those email addresses, as the office sends a link to e-mail the entire class). At each class session, the SGR makes any necessary announcements provided by the office in a folder (emailed to online class SGRs) and passes out the attendance sheet or has people check off their name as they arrive. The SGR also may serve as the class liaison with the OLLI office in case any issues arise.

Shortly before the end of the session, the SGR reminds class members to submit feedback online and to consider an optional donation/gift—also done online—to the Study Group Leader, who is teaching as a volunteer.

Serving as an SGR is an enjoyable experience and a new way to get to know classmates. We encourage you to consider taking on this role for OLLI.

Read for the Bloomsday Celebration

The 2023 OLLI Bloomsday Celebration will take place on Friday, June 16 at 1:30 PM online via Zoom (this is traditional since the novel Ulysses is deemed to have taken place on June 16, 1904). This year we will read some passages from Ernest Hemingway as well as James Joyce. The two used to be drinking companions in Paris and for a time had a mutual admiration society. If you would like to be a reader, please contact the event organizer, Bob Kolodney, at bobkolive@gmail.com. Although the reading will take place on Zoom, the cast party to which all will be invited, will take place in-person at an alcohol-friendly locale convenient to OLLI starting at about 5:00 PM.

Spring Feedback and SGL Gifts

Spring Feedback

The final feedback form is available on the OLLI website under "Classes" and then "Semesters/Minis." Please take a few minutes to submit feedback as each of your study groups comes to a close this semester. You can also fill out a paper form outside the OLLI office. As always, if you have suggestions for improvement, please be mindful of stating them in a constructive and respectful manner.

SGL Gifts

Voluntary SGL gifts can be made on the OLLI website under "Give" and then "SGL Gifts." You must log into your account on the website to see the gift form. SGL gifts can also be made by mailing or dropping off a check made payable to OLLI at AU with the course number(s) listed in the memo field. The OLLI office will collect all gifts, write a check to each SGL, and mail the check with any notes from members to the SGL(s).

Feedback and SGL Gifts will be accepted through Friday, May 12.

Enslaved Washington DC Tour

On Sunday, April 23, our members met downtown to embark on a tour about Enslaved Washington DC led by OLLI's own Ed Ingebretsen! We love when our members get a chance to go out and engage in some experiential learning. We extend our thanks to Ed for leading the first part of the tour as an online talk and the second part in-person.

Gail Rebhan: About Time

Presented by the Alper Initiative for Washington Art

February 4-May 21

Register

For better and worse, nothing stays still. DC artist Gail Rebhan (b. 1953) knows that well and this, her first museum retrospective, explores her many different ways over four decades of using and reconfiguring the time-slicing medium of photography to reflect on macro-and-micro-dynamics of interactions inside families—her own and that of other immigrants—on the centuries of change in diverse areas of the nation’s capital, and on the marks of time revealed on her body (along with periodic attempts to fight it) from young adult, to mother of two sons, then caregiver of an aging father, to the present as she continues making art and living while facing the start of her seventh decade. OLLI is excited to be a co-sponsor for this exhibit. There are several Gallery Talks for which you can register.
