UPDATES

2026-27 BOARD OF DIRECTORS ELECTION

This year's Nominating Committee (Tammy Belden, Chair; John Aldock; Barbara Beizer; Ed Feinberg; and Dave Hensler) developed a slate of four candidates to fill the four positions on the Board of Directors that will become vacant in June 2026. The committee believes these candidates have amply demonstrated the skills, experience, background, and energy needed for OLLI at AU leadership. The Board of Directors has reviewed and approved this slate of candidates, which will appear on the ballot for the election scheduled for April 10, after the annual meeting.

Additionally, OLLI has a process by which any member may be nominated if a petition with at least ten signatures from active OLLI members is presented to the Nominating Committee. Once the Nominating Committee receives the completed petition, along with a brief bio of no more than 100 words, and a photo, it will consider and review such nominations for Board approval through March 27. Interested candidates should contact the OLLI office for the petition form and other details.

On behalf of the OLLI Board of Directors and the membership, thank you to the Nominating Committee members for this critically important work.

Jeff Porter

Jeff Porter joined OLLI in the spring of 2017. He has been a member of the Board of Directors since 2023 and teaches the "Current Events and Public Policy" study group alongside David Callet. He is a current member of both the Strategic Planning Committee and the Membership and Outreach Committee. Jeff also became chair of the Social Committee in spring of 2019 and has arranged a variety of social events for OLLI. Previously, Jeff taught public school before embarking on a business career. He owned several small shops and became a retail manager before serving as the Director of Catering at Whole Foods for nearly 20 years.

David Flaxman

David Flaxman was the previous Chair of the OLLI Board and has been a dedicated member of OLLI since 2016. He continues to serve on the Board and is currently Co-Chair of the Lecture Committee. He also teaches many classes on music and Italian for OLLI. David is a summa cum laude graduate of the Honors College of Michigan State University and has a master's degree in mathematical logic from Johns Hopkins University. After a long successful career in the information technology industry, he is now engaged primarily as a musician, performing with several distinguished choral groups in DC, and serves as president for two of them.

Paul Vamvas

Paul Vamvas joined OLLI in fall of 2019. He currently serves on the Lecture Committee and is a co-producer of the OLLI podcast, "Curiosity Never Retires." He also served as OLLI's Serendipities Coordinator for a period of time and has taught courses on the Constitution and the courts. Paul retired in 2019 after 20 years with the Federal Judicial Center where he produced educational programs for federal judges. He has a JD degree from the University of Maryland School of Law and an LLM focused on constitutional law from the Georgetown Law Center.

Lynn Lewis

Lynn Lewis has been an OLLI member and strong supporter of OLLI's mission since 2013. She has co-facilitated the popular TED Talks class with two OLLI colleagues since 2017. An enthusiastic member of the Lecture Committee, Lynn has suggested a wide variety of speakers for OLLI members. As an active member of the Dupont Circle Village, she cohosts a monthly dinner speaker gathering and volunteers for various Village programs. Lynn holds a master's degree in journalism from Ohio State University and a bachelor's degree in education from the University of Michigan, and she previously worked in the administration of both institutions. She was also a freelance writer and editor in both the public and private sectors for nearly five decades and taught writing courses for adults.

NEXT WEEK'S LECTURE

Richard Kahlenberg, Class Matters: A Book Talk about Race, Class, Colleges, and American Politics

March 20

1:30 PM

In-Person at OLLI

As DEI faces backlash and Democrats lose working-class voters, a new approach is needed. In Class Matters, Richard Kahlenberg argues that higher education should prioritize economic disadvantage rather than race to achieve real racial and economic diversity. He contends that race-based admissions have often shielded systems that favor wealthy students while excluding talented working-class applicants. A leading advocate of class-based affirmative action, Kahlenberg played a key role in debates leading up to the Supreme Court's 2023 decision ending racial preferences. A Harvard-educated scholar and Progressive Policy

Institute director, he has been described by The New York Times as a “liberal maverick.”

Richard's latest books, The American Revolution and the Fate of the World and Stolen: Five Free Boys Kidnapped into Slavery and Their Astonishing Odyssey Home (A True Story About Slavery in America) will be available for purchase and signing immediately following the lecture.

Andrew Hiller, From Page to Stage: Muppets, Publishing, and Chutzpah

Monday, March 23 | 3:30-4:30 PM

Online via Zoom | No Registration Required

Andrew has been heckled by Robin Williams, wrote skits and performed them with the Jim Henson gang, and has seen plays on the New York stage and his books on best sellers' list... Oh yeah, he's also an OLLI SGL. Now, his latest book, Hornytown Chutzpah, is about to hit shelves. If you're wondering about the title, it has to do with Bugs Bunny (plus the visual of a cartoon sign featuring a little red devil with big ole horns) and antisemitism.

No registration is required for Serendipities. The Zoom link will be emailed to all those subscribed to the OLLI newsletter the morning of each talk. If you do not receive the newsletter and would like to attend, please join the email list at https://www.oli-dc.org/join_email_list.

OLLI CONCERT SERIES: RITUALS

April 1, 2026

4:00-6:00 PM

Katzen Arts Center in Abramson Recital Hall

4400 Massachusetts Ave. NW

FREE | Registration required

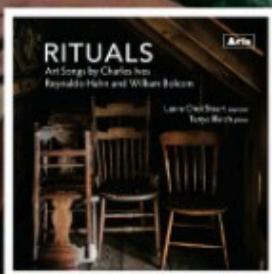

We are excited to announce the first event in OLLI's new concert series. Each concert is free and open to the public. Light refreshments will follow along with an opportunity to purchase CDs for $18.99.

Soprano Laura Choi Stuart and pianist Tanya Blaich present a recital and discussion featuring the art songs of three contrasting composers: Charles Ives' American experience of community and family, ancient rituals and passions of Reynaldo Hahn's Études latines, and the intimate domestic rituals of William Bolcom's vivid miniatures in Briefly It Enters. RITUALS is a full recital program shaped into an album-length narrative—song as ritual: memory repeated, language tasted...life, love, and death revealed in a few concentrated minutes.

Laura Choi Stuart will also be appearing as the soprano soloist in a performance by the City Choir of Washington of the great Mass in B minor by JS Bach at National Presbyterian Church on May 31 at 5:00 PM. For more information and tickets click here.
