Calling All Fall Proposals

Fall Semester: September 19-December 2

Study groups meet once a week for 7-10 weeks.

Proposal form

We welcome proposals from both new and previous Study Group Leaders. For more information about being an SGL at OLLI, please visit Become A Study Group Leader on the OLLI website. If you or someone you know is interested in leading a study group for the first time and would like to speak with someone, please email olli@american.edu with your contact information and we will get in touch with you.

To propose a study group, click the link above. You will need to login with your OLLI username/password or create an account if it's your first time. We plan to continue offering three class formats in the fall: in-person, online, and a limited number of hybrid classes. Study Group Leaders select their preference for format on the proposal form.

Spring Feedback and SGL Gifts

As you finish your study groups, please take a few minutes to complete the anonymous FEEDBACK FORM that is available on the OLLI website. Your feedback helps us know what you think about the classes that are being offered, but most importantly, it serves as a reward for the time, effort, knowledge, and talent that our volunteer Study Group Leaders (SGLs) put into their classes. In the words of one of our SGLs: "We volunteer our time as teachers, and one of our rewards is the feedback and encouragement of class participants. It means so much to us to receive positive feedback and suggestions for improvement. And after investing over 60 hours to develop the curriculum and lead the class, it is discouraging to only receive several responses. Your comments make a big difference."

At the end of each study group's last couple sessions (if over Zoom), a screen will also pop up inviting you to complete feedback for the course. Click on Continue and you will be taken to the feedback form on the OLLI website. You can also fill out a paper form located in each classroom and outside the OLLI office.

Each academic session, we invite members to give their SGLs a gift in honor of all of the work they do to prepare and deliver their courses. This is completely voluntary on our members' behalf. Gifts can be made online on the OLLI WEBSITE after logging in. Then go to "Give" in the heading across the top of the page and then to "SGL Gifts." You must log in to see the gift form.

Members can give gifts to all of their Study Group Leaders in a single form and with a single credit card transaction. Please note that any gifts given are per study group and will be split up equally among the SGLs for that study group if there are more than one. Gifts can also be given by mailing a check to OLLI. The OLLI office will collect all gifts, write a check to each SGL, and mail the check with any notes from members to the SGL(s).

Feedback and SGLs gifts will be accepted through Friday, May 20.

Welcome OLLI's Newest Staff member: Lisa Olson

I want to introduce you to OLLI's newest team member—Lisa Olson. Lisa has started with the OLLI team as our Director of Operations and Projects. With a BS in business management and minors in theater arts and communication studies from Virginia Tech, Lisa began her career in information technology as a systems engineer and then in technical sales working with Electronic Data Systems (EDS) in Virginia, Germany, Belgium, Luxembourg, and Hawaii. After moving back to the DC area, Lisa began working for a small conservation non-profit, WildlifeDirect, that was founded by Dr. Richard Leakey and Harold Wackman to support wildlife in Africa. As part of her duties, she traveled to Kenya to view many magnificent animals in the wild. Lisa then moved to Hill Center at the Old Naval Hospital on Capitol Hill where she was the Venue Manager working with clients for private events and eventually became their Director of Programming. Throughout these experiences, Lisa has always focused on operations and how to make improvements within each organization for people and animals.

We are thrilled to have Lisa join our team.

Today's Lecture

Judy Waxman, Women Have Always Tried to Control Their Fertility

April 29

1:30 PM

Zoom Link

Judy Waxman is one of the nation's leading healthcare law and policy analysts. She has more than 40 years of experience consulting with hundreds of state and national organizations working to improve the health of women and other vulnerable groups. She also has worked as a senior staff leader in health and reproductive rights policy at the National Women's Law Center, Families USA, and the National Health Law Program.

From 1989-1991, Waxman was a senior policy analyst at the US Bipartisan Commission on Comprehensive Health Care (Pepper Commission), which created a universal health care plan that evolved into the Affordable Care Act. She specializes in implementation of the ACA, particularly as it relates to women and other vulnerable consumers. In addition, she is a national expert on Medicaid law and its implementation, as well as strategies for enhancing access to family planning and abortion services for all women and, in particular, low-income women. She is currently teaching Women's Health Policy and Law at George Washington University's Milken Institute School of Public Health and is a board member of Planned Parenthood of Metropolitan Washington, DC.

Next Friday's Lecture

Kristin Henning, The Rage of Innocence: How America Criminalizes Black Youth

Friday, May 6

1:30 PM

Professor Henning is a nationally recognized advocate, author, trainer, and consultant on the intersection of race, adolescence, and policing. She is the Blume Professor of Law and Director of the Juvenile Justice Clinic and Initiative at Georgetown Law. Previously, she was the Lead Attorney of the Juvenile Unit at the Public Defender Service for the District of Columbia, where she had been representing children accused of crime for more than twenty-five years. Henning is the co-founder of a number of initiatives to combat racial injustice in the juvenile legal system, including the Ambassadors for Racial Justice program at Georgetown Law, and Racial Justice for Youth: A Toolkit for Defenders. She is also the recipient of many awards, including the Juvenile Law Center's 2021 Leadership Prize. Henning has written numerous articles and publications advocating for reform in the juvenile legal system. Her book, The Rage of Innocence: How America Criminalizes Black Youth, was released in September 2021. Henning has a BA from Duke, a JD from Yale, and an LLM from Georgetown Law.

Reservations are not required to attend lectures while they are held online. We will include the Zoom link in the 10:00 AM newsletter the day of each lecture.

Virtual Tour Series: The Heart of DC-Part 4

Tuesday, May 10

3:30-4:30 PM

Online via Zoom

Join OLLI's Tamara Belden in our fourth session on the capital's "historic center"! We will finish our tour down the National Mall with short histories of the Capitol Building and the area surrounding it; the Library of Congress; Supreme Court; Botanical Garden; and a number of smaller nearby sites. Capitol Hill has a long and fascinating history. Where are the original gate houses built for the US

Capitol in 1827? What happened to the original 1828 sandstone columns of the East Portico of the US Capitol? Where was the boarding house where Abraham Lincoln lived during his term as a Congressman? Join us for an enjoyable hour of facts and fun.

Registration for this online tour is not required. The Zoom link will be sent to all members on the morning of the event. Please check your inbox, spam, and junk/trash folders for any OLLI emails.

National Gallery of Art: Sponsor Enslaved Washington Procession

May 14

11:00 AM-12:00 PM

Join us in an outdoor procession to four historical sites of enslavement on or near the National Gallery campus. Professor and OLLI Study Group Leader, Ed Ingebretsen, talks about the city's relationship to slavery as we move from 3rd to 7th Streets NW. The four stops include the Capitol to discuss enslavement and the law; the former locations of Center Market, Gadsby's Tavern, and the notorious slaver hotel, the St. Charles, to learn what DC residents knew of slavery at the time; the sites on the National Mall of slave pens run by Birch, Gadsby, Neal, Robey, and Williams; and Lafayette Park to examine the participation of presidents in enslavement.
