MARCH 22, 2019 OLLI NEWS

Spring Member Directory

The 2019 Spring Member Directory has now been published. It is available online, under the Members Only section of our website. To view, click here. A limited number of printed copies are available on the small desk outside of the OLLI office.

Preliminary Class Feedback

Please take a few moments this week or next to provide preliminary feedback about each of your spring study groups. You can access the anonymous feedback form here: FEEDBACK.

The form can also be accessed directly by visiting the OLLI website (<http://www.ollidc.org>). Click on “Study Groups” in the menu at the top, then scroll down to “Preliminary Feedback Form.”

The form will be available through Friday, March 29.

Information from your feedback will help study group leaders know what is going well and what changes they might consider making for the remainder of the semester. If you prefer to complete a paper feedback form, they are available in the office.

Free Minds Book Club: Write Lunch

On Tuesday, April 16, from 11:45 AM to 1:15 PM, OLLI and the Free Minds Book Club & Writing Workshop will co-sponsor our fifth "Write Lunch," led by Jenny Pierson and Ellen Siegler. The Write Lunch will take place in Room 2 on the 5th floor of 4801 Massachusetts Ave. NW. Participants are welcome to bring a bagged lunch to the event.

Free Minds conducts literacy programs, including poetry classes, for incarcerated youth in DC. They will provide us with a packet of poems written by incarcerated young men for us to read and to provide comments.

We are seeking a community of 20-25 OLLI members who will give the youth's poetry encouraging comments. Providing feedback on these poems is an enjoyable community activity and a great way to show these youth that others respect their work and appreciate their dedication. A few men who have participated in and benefited from this program will be with us to share their experiences and express their appreciation. If you have questions, please contact Jenny Pierson at piersonjen17@gmail.com or 202-248-8288.

Please click here to register for this event.

OLLI Member Seeking Transportation

Long-time member and Study Group Leader, Bob Coe, is looking for a ride getting to and from OLLI to attend his classes. He lives in Bethesda, MD near where River Road crosses Wilson Lane. He is signed up for classes on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, each at 11:45 AM - 1:15 PM. If you are interested in helping Bob with rides to and from OLLI, please contact him at 301-320-5083. Thank you for any help you can provide!

Lead a June Mini or July Short

OLLI is now accepting study group proposals for both upcoming summer sessions. This year, the June Minis are June 3-28 and the July Shorts are July 15-19. June Minis meet once a week for 4 weeks and July Shorts meet 3-5 times over the course of one week. We welcome proposals from both new and veteran study group leaders.

For more information about being a study group leader at OLLI, please visit the Become A Study Group Leader page. If you or someone you know is interested in leading a study group and would like to speak with someone, please e-mail olli@american.edu with your contact information and we will get in touch with you.

To propose a study group, please click one of the links below. You will be prompted to login with your OLLI username/password or create an account if it's your first time. The proposal deadline for both sessions is April 15.

Update on Election of Board Members

Under the OLLI by-laws (revised in 2018), the Committee on Nominations and Elections, after consulting with and inviting recommendations from OLLI members in general, has developed a list of four candidates to fill the four open Board positions. The Committee believes these candidates have amply demonstrated the skills, experience, background and energy needed for the important work of the Board. The list, which the Board has approved, will appear on the ballot for the election that begins in late April. The Committee would like to thank all those OLLI members who provided the many excellent recommendations for Committee consideration.

John Aldock. John joined OLLI two years ago after retiring as General Counsel of Goodwin Proctor LLP, an international law firm. He has served on the OLLI Finance Committee and assisted the OLLI Chair in negotiations with AU over space in our new building and the OLLI endowment. He previously served as Assistant U.S. Attorney for D.C., Chair of the Shea and Gardner law firm, Chair of the Advisory Committee on Rules of the U.S. District Court for D.C. and for many years as a member of the Board of the Legal Clinic for the Homeless.

Myra Barron. Myra is a current Board member seeking a second term. She is on the Executive Committee and co-chairs the AU Relationship Committee. Previously she has served as Board Chair, Vice Chair, Treasurer, and Personnel Committee Chair. A lawyer by profession, she has worked in both the public sector — with stints as Assistant County Attorney and as Counsel to the Fairfax County Redevelopment and Housing Authority — and in the private sector, where she specialized in affordable housing and represented non-profits in business and related matters. She has degrees from Smith (BA), Johns Hopkins (MA), and Georgetown (JD).

Linda Kiser. Currently a member of the Development Committee, Linda has been an OLLI member since 2012. She has extensive development experience, having spent many years as Director of Development in several local private schools and having served on various school and non-profit Boards as Chair/member of development committees. Prior to that, she had several years of public service, working with both the U.S. House and the Senate and for the Carter Administration. She currently serves as a tutor at The Academy of Hope, a charter school for adults working to get their GED.

Mark Nadel. Mark joined OLLI in 2012 and since then has taught several different courses on public policy. He is currently on the Curriculum Committee and has helped in the orientation of new SGLs. Previously, he taught political science at Cornell before joining the Government Accountability Office. He ended his federal career as an Associate Commissioner of Social Security. Since retiring, he has taught public policy at Georgetown and was a senior fellow at Georgetown's Government Affairs Institute. He has degrees from California (BA) and Johns Hopkins (PhD).

Next Steps

April 8. Members interested in being placed on the ballot as at-large candidates can do so by filing a self-nomination petition supported by the signatures of 10 OLLI members. Candidates meeting the 10-member signature requirement will automatically appear on the ballot. The deadline for submitting at-large petitions is April 8. As part of the petition, candidates should provide a photo (a smartphone photo will be fine) and a brief bio of no more than 100 words. Interested candidates should contact the Office for the petition form and other details.

April 26. OLLI annual meeting. Candidates will be allowed 2-3 minutes to introduce themselves.

April 26 - May 10. The election takes place online.

May 13. The results are announced.

Student Essay Contest: Climate Change

Recently, The Washington Post included an article about Alexandria Villasenor, a 7th grader who has been sitting outside of the UN Headquarters for weeks with signs asking adults to do something serious about climate change. The article talks about other young people's activities and a global strike they are organizing to demand action. OLLI member Ron Ridker is a member of an organization called Global Peace Service-USA that has decided to start an essay contest for high school and middle school students to write about their feelings about climate change and what they would like to see done about it. A committee of experts will judge the essays and prizes will be given out. Ron is asking for help with this program, which will include contacting school teachers to encourage them to enter the contest, raise funds for prizes, and other ideas about how to run the contest. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Ron at 202-321-0367, or by e-mail at rridker@gmail.com.

Volunteer Judges Needed for DC's National History Day

DC's National History Day program that is run through the National Archives is looking for volunteers to judge this year's competition that will take place Wednesday, April 10 (middle school division) and Thursday, April 11 (high school division). If you enjoy talking with teenagers and are interested in history -- we would be delighted to have you join us as judges for one or both of these days. Training on how to be an NHD judge will be provided.

For more information about National History Day please check out their Web site at <https://www.nhd.org/>. If you are interested please contact Elly Greene, at elly.greene@verizon.net.
