Steven Pearlstein to Speak at Book Club Meeting

The third annual OLLI Book Club will discuss the incisive and provocative book by acclaimed Pulitzer Prize author and Washington Post columnist Steven Pearlstein, Can American Capitalism Survive? This book is particularly relevant, given the current political climate. We hope many members will read the book and come to the discussion, which will be led by Pearlstein himself. The event will be held on Wednesday, September 18, at 10:00 AM in Room A. There is no cost to attend. Please click here to register. If you have any questions, please contact Stan Newman at stanleynewman@prodigy.net.

Housing Program

OLLI at AU is working with the American University School of Public Affairs (SPA) to gauge interest of OLLI members in providing accommodations to SPA graduate students in exchange for rent and/or agreed-upon services. Many graduate students from across the country come each year to AU, and need housing while they study for two years towards earning a Master's degree or four years towards a PhD from SPA.

Each SPA student seeking housing prepares an online form providing relevant personal information as well as the type of housing he or she is seeking. Interested OLLI at AU members can contact the office (202-895-4860) to get the list of such data and contact the student directly online, by e-mail and/or by phone.

If you are interested and/or would like more information, please e-mail OLLI at AU at olli@american.edu.

Room Needed

For the past three years, Woodrow Wilson Center scholars have been speaking in the Scholars World Series at OLLI. From time to time, the Woodrow Wilson International Center invites visiting international fellows who need housing. One in particular is seeking help, Jamil Hasanli. Jamil is an Azerbaijani historian, author, and politician who was the only candidate to run for president against the authoritarian Azerbaijani leader. He served two terms as a member of the Azeri Parliament from 2000-2010 (when Azerbaijan had a democratic parliament) and now is a leader of the Azerbaijani opposition movement, focused especially on the plight of political prisoners. Jamil is returning to the states this fall (late September 2019-late February 2020) after being awarded a Reagan-Fascell Fellowship at the United States National Endowment for Democracy. He is bringing his 15 year old grandson with him so he can experience an American public high school. If you or anyone you know would be willing to rent to or host Jamil and his son, please contact Christian Ostermann at the Wilson Center (Christian.Ostermann@wilsoncenter.org, or 202-355-8559). Christian can provide further information and vouch for Jamil's reliability, thoughtfulness, and kindness. Jamil has a very limited budget. He is willing to house sit, share a room with his grandson, rent a small basement apartment, etc.

Curated by Yu-Chuan Tseng

June 15-August 11, 2019

Being Here as ME presents six women artists striving towards constructions of female subjectivity. Pey-Chwen Lin, Tzu-Ning Wu, Yung-Chieh Wu, I-Chun Chen, Pei-Shih Tu, and Hui-Chan Kuo create new media artworks through diverse mediums and methods. Their work transcends gender discussions, and through social strategies, action, and engagement they express their concerns and create artworks revealing their anxiety and opinions about the ecology of society, science, technology and the environment.

Plans to Prosper You: Reflections of Black Resistance and Resilience in Montgomery County's Potomac River Valley

June 15-August 11, 2019

The exhibition title takes its name from bible verse Jeremiah 29:11 to echo the central role of the Black church in bringing communities together, inspiring hope, and acting as a vector for social change. The goal of this exhibition is to offer a space of learning and meditation that highlights the Black history of Montgomery County and western Washington, DC and pay homage to the communities who championed fights against racial discrimination through faith, family, and fellowship. While this exhibition highlights the communities of Scotland, Tobytown, and Macedonia-Moses, we hope that Plans to Prosper You will inspire similar exhibitions and continue to prompt in-depth collaboration within and beyond these communities.

Passages: Keith Morrison, 1999-2019

Curated by Judith Stein

June 15-August 11, 2019

Passages: Keith Morrison, 1999-2019 surveys thirty paintings and watercolors by the Jamaican-born Keith Morrison. A magician of color and space and a teller of tales, fanciful and real, Morrison focuses on the tangible and spiritual components of culture. His subjects encompass Afro-Caribbean and Meso-American art and architecture, as well as the somber history of the Middle Passage. By turns mystical, meditative and joyous, Morrison's work invites our entry into the rich visual world of his making.
